Automation of interactions with a game.

Mainly developed in Python, it includes the use of OCR to 'read' pixels, API calls to compare data, and actions performed based on those comparisons. The bot also interacts with Discord to send messages, and features a GUI interface for ease of use.